ROCKYFORD

Norman Hargreaves was taken to Calgary suddenly on Wednesday evening and operated on for appendicitis.

Miss Emily Frost youngest daughter of E. W. Frost was united in marriage to Mr. George Muehlner on Wednesday, October 24th.

Bert Gibson and Gerry Cammerart are making a speedy recovery from their recent operations and will soon be home again.

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Coels are being congratulated on the birth of a daughter Alma Ruth Ellen.

Twelfth annual anniversary service was conducted at Rockyford United at Rockyford United Church on Sunday October 28 with Rev. C. H. Woods at the pulpit.

On Monday evening the Ladies Aid served turkey supper to a large crowd Mrs. McLean convined the kitchen, Mrs. Bradwell the dining room, Mrs. Geo. Muehlner was hostess, Mrs. Harker and Mrs. Robison having charge of the entertainment.

Don't forget the Rockyford Home Talent Chautauque commencing on Mon. Nov. 19 to Fri. Nov. 24th.

The Halloween dance was very successful which was put on by the ratepayers Association, the supper by the Girl Guide committee. The Prize Waltz was won by the bride and bridegroom Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Muehlner. Dancing continued until the wee sma' hours.

A good crowd both of town and district enjoyed the lectures by E. H. Garland U.F.A. and M. E. Church U.F.A. which was held in the Town Hall on Wed. of last week.

Mr. J. Frater who has been seriously ill at his home is reported to be doing nice.

CROWFOOT

The Crowfoot School was the scene of a jolly Halloween Party on Wednesday last, Mr. Norwood officiating. A number of games were played, the children becoming greatly excited and hilarious over the apple ducking. A delightful luncheon was later served by J. Norwood, assisted by Mr. Buckle.

Mr. and Mrs. David England and Mrs. Nelson motored to the city on Thursday of last week. David is sporting a beautiful new Dodge car. Is there a depression? Not in Crowfoot.

Mrs. Rowe Harvey, Miss Frances Harvey and Miss Forestell, all of Calgary were week end guests at Hamilton Grange. Miss Forestell is leaving very shortly for Japan, where she will reside in the future and continue her duties as nurse.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Scheer and John, Miss Penner and Mr. Norwood were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Scheer on Sunday evening last. Who tipped over Mr. Schumann's tin boat? We think we know and the tubbins will get cha if ya dont watch out.

Mrs. Robt West, Mr. and Mrs. D.A. Perry and Miss McDonald all of Strathmore, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Garriot last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson were visitors to Standard on Sunday of last week.

The Crowfoot School house was full to capacity Sunday last, on the occasion of a very delightful Thanksgiving Service. The schoolroom was most artistic in its decorations of vegetables, fruit and flowers. The topic, Christian Growth, was freely discussed and enjoyed by all present. Items of great interest to the congregation were the recitations given by Olive Garriot and John Scheer, and the hymn "I heard the voice of Jesus say" was beautifully rendered by the school quartette. Mrs. Chas and Fred Harvey, Mrs. Norman Scheer and Mr. Norwood, Miss Ruth E. Scheer accompanied. Later Rev. Woods, pastor of the United Church at Rockyford, gave a direct and sincere talk on the Oxford Group.

Mr. and Mrs. Patching and family are spending several days with relatives North of Calgary. Mr. C. Buckle is taking care of their farm during their absence.

At long last the hard holes North of Norman Scheer's farm are being graded and made possible for cars. This road has been in a frightful condition for a number of years. A great many people will find the road convenient to use, and will greatly appreciate the work done there.

Miss Elva Schumann is home again with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Schumann. We are happy to have Elva home with us again.

Mr. Fred Harvey is spending the week for the purpose of acting as one of the jury for the coming session at the Court House.

We are indeed happy to report that Mrs. Hughes has been successfully operated on and is progressing favorably.

Mr. G. C. Melendy left a week ago for the North Country where he will endeavour to put salt on the tail of an unsuspecting moose. That salt will probably be speeded a little by the force of a rifle shot.

Mr. and Mrs. Colin Park have left for Ontario, where they will visit the old home for a month or so.

Miss Gladys Gundersley who has for some time made her home with her aunt, Mrs. Graham orkes, left Friday for Great Falls, where she will reside with her mother for the coming winter. A farewell party was held for her at the home of Mrs. Cole and a presentation of a brush and comb set was made.

Mr. Woodrow had a birthday on Monday, as young men will, and his friends sprang a surprise celebration on the event at the home of E. Stinson. Bert is heading for Calgary where he has secured a job.

On Monday evening Mrs. Hosgood and E. J. Garland were speakers at a well attended political meeting in the Carceland Hall. Both were given a good hearing and gave a very worth while message. Among many interesting things Mr. Garland gave everyone interested in the present economic system and condition food for thought in a report from a Commission in Saskatchewan. This commission found that if the farmers of Saskatchewan had paid interest on their borrowings last year it would have taken four fifths of the grain Saskatchewan raised to do it, and if they had paid taxes in full it would have taken two fifths of the grain raised to do that. It is not a very healthy condition when it would take one fifth more than all the grain raised to meet these two items.

NOT THE SINGER BUT THE SONG

Thirty men, red eyed and disheveled, lined up before a judge of the strathmore police court. It was the regular morning company of drunks and disorderlies. Some were old and hardened, other hung their heads in shame. Just as the momentary disarray attending the strathmore court of the prisoners quieted down, a strange thing happened. A strong, clear voice from before began singing:

Last night I lay sleeping,
There came a dream so fair,
Last night I had been for them
A nightmare or a drunken stupor,
The song was such a contrast to the horrible fact that no one could avoid the sudden shock at the thought the song suggested.

I stood in old Jerusalem,
Beside the Temple there.
The song went on. The judge had paused. He made a quiet inquiry. A former member of a famous opera company, known all over the country was awaiting trial for forgery. It was he who was singing in his cell.

Meanwhile the song went on, every man in the line showed emotion. One boy at the end of the line, after a desperate effort at self control, leaped against the wall, buried his face in his folded arms and sobbed. Oh mother!

The sobs cutting the weary heart
of the men who heard, and the song, still swelling its way through the courtroom, blended in the walls. At length one man protested:

Judge, said he, have we got to sub mit to this? We're here to take our punishment, but this—this, too, began to sob.

It was impossible to proceed with the business of the court, yet the judge gave no order to stop the song.
The police sergeant, after a surprised effort to keep the men in line, stepped back and waited with the rest.
The song moved to its climax:
Jerusalem, Jerusalem! Sing,
for the night is over!
Hear him in the highest. Hosanna
for evermore!

In an ecstasy of melody the last word rang out, and then there was a silence. The judge looked into the faces of the men before him. There was not one who was not touched by the song; not one in whom some bet ter impulse has not stirred. He did not call the cases singly—a kind word of advice, and he dispensed them all. No man was fined or sent to the work house that morning.
The song had done more good
than punishment could have accom plished.
